RAILROAD CONNECTIONS .- The proceedings instituted by State Railroad Commissioner Hill against the Southern and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroads, to compel them to restore connections at Strasburg Junction, closed at Wood-tock last night. The case was submitted on its merits without argument.

The court decided, in substance, that be Southern train, due at the junction, bould be so run as to reach that point thirteen minutes earlier than at pres-ent, and that the Baltimore and Ohio train should be held fourteen minutes

This plan, the Southern claims, will work injustice to Harrisonburg, and to-day the court will hear testimony on a Creighton & Co.,—or Richard Gibson petition of the Southern to be allowed hold its train at Harrisonburg until o'clock, thus giving that place a layover of two hours. It is thought that be court will permit this, and the con-ection will be in worse plight than be-

Judge Harrison last night expressed himself from the bench that a layover of two hours at Harrisonburg would be more beneficial to the traveling public then the connection at Strasburg Junc-

The B. & O. has refused to make the connection so far, claiming that to do so its trains would have to lose more important connections at Harper's Ferry.

DOVES HOVERED OVER HIM.-With s snow white dove on either shoulder and with a third perched npon the open Bible before him, Rev. J. W. Graham preached to the congregation in Union Methodist Episcopal Church in Camden, Del., on Sunday upon the subject of "God's Love and Its Manifesta-
